Memorial List of Forefathers

Jacob Hostettler was born in 1704 and came to America September 1, 1736, and located near Philadelphia, Pa.

He died in the year 1776 after many hardships which the early settlers experienced and whose history can be found in what is called the Hostettler book.

He had six children: namely, John, Jacob, Joseph, Christian, a daughter (name unknown), and Barbara.

Joseph Hostetler, son of above Jacob Hostetler was born in Aug. 1742. He married Anna Blank and to this union were born seven children.

Michael, the third son of Joseph Hostetler lived at Belleville, Pa., and died in the year 1844. He married Mary Garber. They had five children: namely, Joseph, Anna, John, Michael, and Catherine.

Anna Hostetler, daughter of above Michael Hostetler was married to John Kurtz, grandson of Stephan Kurtz who landed at Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 22, 1744, on a ship from Rotterdam. They had ten children.

The above John Kurtz was the father of the John Kurtz whose descendants appear in this book.

John H. Kurtz was born Feb. 6, 1828, at Menno, Pa., and died Feb. 12, 1884, at Belleville, Pa.

LIFE'S RAILROAD

Life indeed is like a railroad,
  Climbing up a mountain high,
With its narrow winding passage
  Leading on if we but try.

Time is short, yes, time is precious
  Do not falter, do not fail,
Keep your hand upon the throttle
  And your eye upon the rail.

Many trials, many troubles
  Await to tempt you on your way,
Do not fail to heed a warning
  Lest your train will go astray.

When our earthly toils are ended
  When at last we've lived our while,
May our Father up in Heaven
  Greet us with a joyous smile.
